

Graduate Assistantship – Music Education

Begins: August 2021

Description:

The music education graduate assistant will assist the music education faculty in supervising undergraduates who are completing practicum experiences in local schools. Other tasks may be assigned. Responsibilities may include supervising students, assisting with courses, facilitating practical teaching experiences, developing partnerships with local educators and administrative tasks.

Skills Needed:

Preference will be given to students admitted to the Master of Music degree. The graduate assistant in music education should be a certified music educator with teaching experience. Preference will be given to candidates with a demonstrated knowledge of music teaching and who have the potential to be a strong mentor.

To Apply:

Submit a graduate assistantship application and cover letter to:

Dr. John Prescott, Coordinator
Graduate Studies in Music
Missouri State University
901 S. National Ave.
Springfield, MO 65897

email: johnprescott@missouristate.edu
phone: 417-836-5748

Applications will begin the review process on December 1, 2020 and will continue until the position is filled. Interviews will be scheduled as applications are received.